December 2012

Please forward this newsletter and/or print out copies for your local church bulletin board and for distribution.

On December 1, please join the world Adventist Church for a day of prayer and fasting for two Adventists imprisoned in the West African country of Togo. Pastor Antonio Monteiro and church member Bruno Amah have been falsely detained for eight months. Even though there is no evidence of guilt, the men have been held without hope of bail or a trial. Please pray for the safety of the men and their families, and a speedy release from prison. To learn more, visit nadadventist.org.

The Chesapeake Conference Adventist Community Services (ACS) and Disaster Response teams extend sincere appreciation to the many churches and individuals who responded to the call for help for the “Sandy” victims. Donated coats, boots, blankets and personal care items have been sent to several locations needing assistance in the Chesapeake Conference territory and surrounding areas. The focus has now shifted to long-term recovery, says Kitty Juneau, conference Disaster Response coordinator. She says that monetary donations are what are needed at this stage. Donations are tax-deductible, and should be sent to Chesapeake Conference, 6600 Martin Road, Columbia, Maryland 21044, Attention: Evelyn Gates.

Upcoming Christmas Events:
~ Messiah Sing-along—The Spencerville Adventist Academy Choir and Orchestra, with special guest musicians from Shenandoah Valley Academy, will present a Messiah Sing-along on December 1, 4:00 p.m., at the Spencerville church located at 16325 New Hampshire Avenue in Silver Spring, Maryland. Washington National Opera baritone Matt Osifchin and Baltimore Lyric Opera soprano, Coleen Daly, will uplift you with such memorable arias as “The Trumpet Shall Sound” and “He Shall Feed His Flock.” All are welcome to sing or just enjoy "And the Glory," "Oh Thou that Tellest," and the "Hallelujah" chorus to name a few. Bring your own Messiah score if possible, as supplies are limited.

Conference Finances at a Glance reflect the ongoing faithfulness of our members during difficult times. We are appreciative that Chesapeake members continue to be steadfast in tithing and giving offerings. According to conference treasurer Eduardo Muñoz, there has been a very small increase in tithe—just .22 percent this year. There is one less Sabbath this year than last year, so the hope is that there will still be a modest gain. The Chesapeake Advance offering (CAP) is down from last year. Much of this offering is given back to churches to support building projects, education, evangelism and church planting. More than $200,000 was used for evangelism this year. Members who are traveling during the holidays can give online via their church website.

Congratulations to Orlando Rosales, pastor of the Baltimore Spanish district, who was one of 12 individuals selected on November 12 as a winner of the Stewardship Sermon Contest sponsored by the North American Division and Ministry Magazine. The winning sermons were chosen from 100 submissions and will be published in a book.

Deep sympathy is offered to Eastern Shore Junior Academy teacher Jennifer Miller and her family. Miller’s brother, Jerome “J.J.” Tyson, was killed November 3 in a work accident in Lehigh County, Pennsylvania. He will be greatly missed by his wife Missy and their three children, his mother, and Jennifer and her family. Please keep them in prayer during this sad and difficult time.
