Hagerstown, MD 21742
Guest Speaker:  EMILY DUNN DOGGETTE

Emily was baptized at 12 years old by Pastor E. T. Mimms at the Glenville Seventh-day Adventist Church. There she served as youth usher, sang in the youth choir, assisted in the children’s Sabbath School classes, and occasionally taught both the children and the youth the Sabbath School lessons.

Emily has a BS degree in Occupational Therapy. She is currently fulfilling a position as a lead Occupational Therapist for her company.

Emily serves as the Delaware Valley Area Women’s Ministry Leader and the Women’s Ministry Leader of the Pine Forge SDA Church. She further lends her time to this congregation as a deaconess and member of the hospitality committee.

Emily is a dedicated, loving and committed mother of two adult children: Jacquelyn Michelle Doggette and Jackson Michael Doggette, III. She enjoys quilting, completing jigsaw puzzles, walking her two dogs, cake decorating and interior designing. Emily is a woman of God who loves people and seeks to share with them messages of hope for this life and the life to come.

Special Appreciation
We are able to keep our retreat costs down thanks to generous contributions.

Adventist Adult Single Ministries’ activities are for singles of all ages. Most of the group consists of people middle aged and older; however, we encourage and welcome younger singles and singles of any age, as well as those who are not Seventh-day Adventists to attend. Alumni are always welcome!
