ABOUT THE SPEAKER
Pastor Al Konrad, a graduate of Andrews University, began his ministry in the fall of 1966 and over the years has pastored various churches in Illinois, the New York City and Washington DC Metro areas, and on Maryland’s Eastern Shore. In 1988 due to some health issues, Pastor Konrad took a permanent medical leave from the ministry and worked as a nursing home administrator for 20 years. He then served as a part time pastor on Maryland’s Eastern Shore for several years. Recently, he retired and moved to the Staunton, Virginia, area to be near his daughter and twin granddaughters.
